

Dismissed and Opinion Filed July 3, 2025

In The
Court of Appeals
Fifth District of Texas at Dallas

No. 05-25-00731-CR

ALEXIS LORENE LANDRUM, Appellant
V.
THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 296th Judicial District Court
Collin County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 380-83365-2018

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Smith, Clinton and Barbare
Opinion by Justice Smith

Alexis Lorene Landrum filed a notice of appeal from various interlocutory orders. The clerk's record does not include any final judgment of conviction or other appealable order. The orders appellant seeks to appeal are denials of various motions appellant filed, including motions to appoint appellate counsel, a motion to enforce an early-release order, a motion to dismiss the State's motion to adjudicate, and a motion to stay. Appellant also seeks to appeal the trial court's allowing the State to amend its motion to adjudicate appellant's guilt and the trial court's failure to rule on certain motions. None of these are appealable interlocutory orders.

We have no jurisdiction to entertain an appeal unless the trial court has entered a judgment or appealable order. See TEX. R. APP. P. 25.2(b), 26.2(a)(1); State v. Sanavongxay, 407 S.W.3d 252, 259 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012); Henderson v. State, 153 S.W.3d 735, 735–36 (Tex. App.—Dallas 2005, no pet.). Because appellant has not identified any judgment or other appealable order before this Court, we conclude we lack jurisdiction over this appeal.

We dismiss this appeal for want of jurisdiction.
