Immediate Safety Review Requested – Everleigh Grace Landrum

GRAYSON COUNTY, TEXAS 75020

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally request an immediate safety review regarding Everleigh Grace Landrum, a minor child currently under DFPS supervision.

There are serious concerns involving her current placement, including allegations of abuse, lack of licensed supervision, limited family contact, and insufficient transparency regarding her safety and wellbeing.

DFPS has a statutory obligation to protect children and respond promptly to credible safety concerns. I respectfully request confirmation that Everleigh's placement and welfare are being reviewed immediately and independently.

This child deserves protection and accountability.

Duty to Advocate – Everleigh Grace Landrum

GRAYSON COUNTY, TEXAS 75020

To CASA,

I am writing regarding Everleigh Grace Landrum, for whom CASA has a duty to advocate solely in the child's best interest.

Given reports of limited visitation, lack of visibility, and abuse allegations, I respectfully request confirmation that CASA has conducted recent in-person visits and escalated any safety concerns.

A child deserves an advocate who ensures they are seen and protected.

Formal Safety Concern – Everleigh Grace Landrum

GRAYSON COUNTY, TEXAS 75020

To Empower Leadership,

I am writing with serious concern regarding Everleigh Grace Landrum, a child placed through your agency.

Publicly known information raises questions about licensing, supervision, visitation, and accountability related to her placement. These concerns warrant immediate review and documented action.

I urge Empower to ensure Everleigh's safety through appropriate oversight, compliance with licensing standards, and transparency.

Please take swift action. Silence is not acceptable when a child's safety is in question.
